

Frequently Asked Questions

Experience required to be in Bucket Beatz Drum Club?

No! BBDC is designed to be friendly and accessible to even the most inexperienced of musicians. However, beginners all the way up to professionals are welcome to join in on the fun!

Can I hire Bucket Beatz Drum Club for a private event?

Yes! Whether you have a birthday party, outdoor event, or any other occasion, BBDC can make sure your event is grooving in no time. Rates for special events begin at $250 (10 drummers or less) plus $25 per drummer added to the event. A deposit is required for a private event.

Can adults join Bucket Beatz Drum Club?

Yes! Adults are more than welcome to participate with their children. If desired, BBDC also offers an adult only class where BYOB is accepted.

Refunds

Monthly tuition to BBDC is nonrefundable. However, drummers will be able to go to more classes if they have to miss one or two. A private lesson will also be offered to drummers if they cannot make it to a class. If you decide you can't make the monthly lessons, you can always find another drummer to go! Just email me saying that someone else is coming to the class.

How does the current pandemic impact Bucket Beatz Drum Club?

Classes are being held at a maximum of ten students, but varies depending on the location. BBDC is also practicing social distancing and wearing masks to help reinforce drummer safety.
